Janice Nagle Johnson Barrett

Janice Nagle Johnson Barrett Midland Janice Nagle Johnson Barrett, 90, passed away on July 30, 2017, in Midland, Michigan. Janice was born on March 21, 1927 in Detroit, Michigan to John and Ilda Nagle. Janice grew up in Detroit. She graduated from Cooley High School. After high school, she attended Wayne State University where she earned a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science. Janice married Sidney Benjamin Johnson in 1950 in Detroit, Michigan. They were happily married for 41 years. Jan and Ben were dedicated parents and grandparents, who enjoyed spending time with family. Their favorite place to be together was the cottage. Ben passed away in 1991. Jan and Ben lived for many years in St. Clair, Michigan. Janice ran Chapter One Bookstore in the Riverside Plaza. She also was a 4-H leader and taught many girls how to sew. Jan was generous with her time, home, and resources throughout her life. Janice is survived by her children, Thomas (Deborah) Johnson, Mary Ellen (Thomas) Trombley, and Douglas (Kathryn) Johnson, as well as many grandchildren, a niece and nephew, an older brother, John, and other relatives. A funeral service was held on Friday, August

4th at 12:00 noon at Immanuel Lutheran Church in St. Clair. Visitation was held one hour prior to the service. Burial followed the funeral at Hillside Cemetery in St. Clair. Janice's family would like to thank the staff of Midland King's Daughters Home of Midland for the kind and compassionate care she received. Memorials may be made to Immanuel Lutheran Church. It is comforting to know that the God of all comfort will completely remove all grief at the time of the earthly resurrection. The Bible at John 5:28,29 comforts us with the words "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will come out." God promises that "he will do away with death forever, and God will wipe away the tears from all faces. Isaiah 25:8
