Joanne enjoyed playing party bridge and socializing. She loved to entertain, adorning her home with seasonal decorations, especially on St. Patrick's Day. Even her Westies had their own green attire. If possible, Jo would have trained them to do an Irish jig. Her annual Christmas party was a highlight of the season for many friends. What a marvelous event the earthly resurrection will be! It will be a time of irrepressible joy when families broken apart by death will be reunited! Jesus promises that those in the memorial tombs will come out. John 5:28,29

It will be wonderful to see Joanne again. But is that possible? According to God's word the Bible she has a promise of resurrection to life again with us. John 5:28&29; clearly states that all those in memorial tombs and graves will come out to life again. Under the rule of God's kingdom death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, Revelation 21:3,4 calls them "former things". It will be a good day to see Joanne again.
