Jon Fry

Jon C. Fry January 6, 1942 - May 31, 2017 York Jon Christopher Fry, 75, passed away on May 31, 2017, at Memorial Hospital in York. Jon is survived by his daughter, Elizabeth Fry Bittner, of York and her husband, Brent and their three children, Katherine, Megan, and Adam. He was preceded in death by his wife, Louona Long Fry. Jon was born on January 6, 1942 in York, the only child of the late Christopher Arthur Fry and the late Dorothy Elizabeth (Barth) Fry. He graduated from York Suburban High School in 1959. He joined the United States Air Force and was stationed in Japan. In 1970, he graduated from York College with a B.S. degree in Behavioral Science, Sociology, Psychology, and Economics. For many years, Jon worked as a draftsman with his father at BASCO Associates. Throughout his life, Jon sought God's serenity to accept the things he could not change, the courage to change the things he should and the wisdom to know the difference. In his last chapter, Jon learned to overcome troublesome periods in his life and to live life one day at a time. A memorial service will be held Friday, June 9, at 11 a.m. at St. John's Episcopal Church. Interment will be at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery and will be held at the family's convenience. Keffer Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Jon has a bright future. He has a promise from God himself that he will be resurrected. In his word at John 5:28&29; it clearly states that all those in memorial tombs and graves will come out to life again with us. Like Lazarus, Jon is only sleeping, that's what Jesus referred to death like. He then showed his God given ability to wake up Lazarus from death. Jon will join us again, we will have him to hug and laugh with because the God who promises it will make it come true. Jon I look forward to seeing you again.

Death brings sorrow and tears, and it is hard to adjust to the absence of a loved one. But what comfort and strength we gain from the assurance that our Almighty God will actually swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces! Isaiah 25:8, Revelation 21:4
