Martha Naomi Thompson

Martha Naomi "Nome" (Speicher) Thompson TAMPA, FL: Martha Naomi "Nome" Thompson (Speicher) passed away peacefully on May 17th, 2017 in Tampa, FL. Nome was born on August 15th, 1927 in Cadiz, Ohio, to parents, Peter and Martha (Kirkland) Speicher. Nome graduated from The Ohio State University with a degree in nursing. She met the love of her life, Dr. Lawrence Thompson, while he attended The Ohio State University School of Medicine, and the two were married in 1949. They moved to Mansfield, Ohio, where they would raise their family of four children. Nome had an incredible zest for a life that was filled with traveling, shelling on the beaches of Sanibel Island, taking hundreds of photos to fill albums, cooking delicious meals, playing her violin, and making precious memories with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Her friends and family will never forget her generosity, youthful personality, and her ability to tackle life's obstacles with poise and grace. Nome is survived by her four children, daughters Ann Miller of Tampa, FL, and Sue Thompson of Columbus, OH, and her sons, Brian of Cincinnati, OH, and Peter (Lynn) of Chicago, IL. She is also survived by her five grandchildren, Karen Heavey (Keith), Sara Newton (Jeremy),

Molly Schissel, Peter Thompson, and Claire Thompson, and four great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her loving husband of 67 years, Dr. Lawrence Thompson. She was a longtime member of Grace Episcopal Church in Mansfield, Ohio, and St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church on Sanibel Island, Florida. A memorial service in Nome's honor will be held at St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church, date and time to be determined.

I am truly sorry for your family's loss. Jesus promises that those in the memorial tombs will come out. (John 5:28,29) in harmony with God's original original purpose, those resurrected will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43). This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life. The Bible says: "The righteous will possess the earth, and they will live forever on it!" Psalms 37:29

Martha and Lawrence are going to be so surprised when they open their eyes and find themselves here with us again. Martha prayed the Lord's Prayer many many times but did she realize what the king of that kingdom said he would do? Jesus states that all those in memorial tombs and graves will come to life again here with us. So Martha, as well as many others will enjoy life again under God's kingdom rule. Sickness, pain and death will be no more and so we will enjoy them forever. What good news about a wonderful day.
