Pamela Cook

Cook, Pamela Pamela J. Cook, age 54, of Ripon, WI, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, May 3, 2017, at Ripon Medical Center. Pam was born on April 14, 1963, in Berlin, WI, the daughter of Wilford and Diana (Gustke) Schoppenhorst. She graduated from Berlin High School in Berlin, WI, and on September 14th, 1985, she married the love of her life, Robert Jess Cook II. Pam was the manager of loan services at Golden Rule Community Credit Union of Ripon, where she dedicated much of her time. She was a loving and devoted mother of three girls: Morgan, Kirsten, and Marissa. She enjoyed many hobbies including reading, scrapbooking, spending time with her family and friends, and attending her kids' numerous extra-curricular activities. She also enjoyed her trips to Las Vegas to visit her mother at her vacation home. Pam is survived by her husband, Robert Jess Cook II; three daughters: Morgan (Matthew Tamminga), Kirsten (Isiah Siemers), and Marissa Cook; mother, Diana Schoppenhorst; mother-in-law, Patricia Cook; brothers-in-law, Milton (Eileen) Cook and Thomas (Carrie) Cook; nephews, Nolan, Cole, Jordan (Rachel) and their daughters, Ashlyn, Kamryn, and Kennedy; nieces, Tori, and Alli; and many other relatives and friends. She is preceded in death by her father, Wilford "Willie" Schoppenhorst; father-in-law, Robert "Butch" Cook; and grandparents, Sam and Ollie Gustke and Ed and Minnie Schoppenhorst. A visitation for Pam will be held from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm on Saturday, May 6, 2017, at Messiah Lutheran Church, 500 Mayparty Dr., Ripon, WI, 54971. A memorial service for Pam will be held at 12:00 pm on Saturday, May 6, 2017, at Messiah Lutheran Church, with Rev. Bryan Fritsch officiating. A memorial in Pam's name is being established.
