Paul lived a life that was full of accomplishments. But it was cut short, maybe you would disagree. But who is ready to pass away? Paul, being the sort of person he was would certainly have found more to do. The future for Paul will indeed give him more to do. Because Paul has a guarantee to life again here with us. According to God's word the Bible, at John 5:28&29,, Paul will be resurrected. Here with us, he will enjoy life as never before. Under the kingdom rule we pray for, in the Lord's Prayer, sickness, old age and death will be no more. Paul and everyone else will enjoy life.

It is comforting to know that the God of all comfort will completely remove all grief at the time of the earthly resurrection. The Bible at John 5:28,29 comforts us with the words, "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will come out. God promises that " he will do away with death forever, and God will wipe away the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8, Revelation 21:4
