Annie Z. Brown

Gone but never forgotten

Annie was a loving mother who had 1 beautiful son, 2 wonderful daughters along with numerous grandkids and nieces and nephews. She always had a kind and loving spirit and welcomed everyone in with open arms. Going through this hard journey called life, she always found a way to smile and enjoy every moment of it.

No one wants to lose their loved ones. I offer my condolences to the family and friends of Annie. I would like to offer much more in the way of comfort. The God of all comfort plans a wonderful future for Annie. In the Bible at Luke 7:22, Jesus showed great love for others. He went from city to city, telling people the good news about the Kingdom of God. He cured the blind, the lame, and the deaf. He raised the dead. Jesus even gave his own life in behalf of mankind. What does this mean for us? In the Lord's Prayer we pray for God's Kingdom to come and his will to be done. What a wonderful part of that Kingdom rule to bring our loved ones back to us on a paradise earth. It's God's guarantee that Annie will be with us again! Matthew 6:9,10.

The death of someone you love is one of life's greatest tragedies. Just knowing that what you're feeling is not uncommon can be reassuring in itself. In addition, expressing, not repressing, your feelings can also help. The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Jesus's] voice and come out. John 5:28, 29.
