She was an angel in waiting to help her sons and daughters-in-law, often with an encouraging word, warm smile and a loving hug.

To her grandchildren, "MiMi" loved unconditionally, she cherished each ones accomplishments, and attended to their multitude of needs. Throughout her life she proudly attended sporting events, school and church productions and piano recitals. Sue graduated from Meridian High School/Junior College and the University of Tennessee Medical School as a Laboratory Technician. She was a member of Providence Baptist Church in Raleigh. Family will receive friends on Tuesday evening from 6-8 pm at Mitchell Funeral Home.
