RANDALL SCOTT MILLER

CALIFORNIA — Randall Scott Miller, 46, formerly of Delaware, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, Sept. 12, 2016 in southern California.

He was born on July 26, 1970, in Mount Gilead, Ohio, son of Kenny and Carol (Miller) Barber, and raised and later adopted by his maternal grandparents, Clayton and Mary (Hansel) Miller of Delaware.

Growing up in Delaware, Randy was active in 4-H, enjoyed fishing and camping, and was a member of the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 318, where he rose to the rank of Eagle Scout. He graduated from Delaware Hayes High School in 1988 and went to the University Of Cincinnati where he studied Pharmacy. After graduation, he took a job with CVS Pharmacy in Indianapolis, Indiana and later moved to the Los Angeles area where he worked for CVS and later Ralphs Markets as a Registered Pharmacist, Pharmacy Supervisor, and District Manager.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Clayton and Mary (Hansel) Miller.

He is survived by his wife, Jodi (Pearson) Miller; two stepsons, Michael and Zach Villard; one brother, David Miller and his wife Molly; his father, Kenny Barber and his wife Joann; his first wife, Jan (Stanley) Miller; three cousins, Todd Miller and his wife Alejandra, Amanda Miller and her husband Ian, and Christina Barber-Redman and her husband Chris; and his aunts and uncles, Richard Miller and his wife Linda, Patricia Stout, Bonnie Barber, and Fred Barber and his wife Charlotte. A memorial service celebrating the life of Randall Miller will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 8, 2016, in the First Presbyterian Church, 73 W. Winter St., Delaware. In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that contributions be made in Randy's name to the local animal shelter of your choice.
